

FreeSeas Announces Results of Annual Meeting, Notice of Delisting from Nasdaq and Intention to Appeal

Athens, Greece, December 20, 2012 -- FreeSeas Inc. (Nasdaq: FREE) ("FreeSeas" or the "Company"), a transporter of dry-bulk cargoes through the ownership and operation of a fleet of Handysize and Handymax vessels, announced today that, at the annual meeting of the Company, the Company's shareholders elected Xenophon Galinas to the Board of Directors for three years, approved a reverse split of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock at a ratio of up to one (1) for every twelve (12) shares outstanding and ratified the appointment of Sherb & Co., LLP as the Company's independent registered public accounting firm for the year ending December 31, 2012.

The Company also announced today that it has received a letter from the Nasdaq listing qualifications staff stating that the Company's common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq Global Market because the Company has not, during the 180-day grace period previously granted by Nasdaq, regained compliance with the Nasdaq continued listing requirement that the bid price of the Company's common stock be at least $1.00 per share as set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule Section 5450(a)(1). The Company may appeal such decision to a Nasdaq Hearings Panel within seven days from the date of the determination letter.

The Company currently intends to appeal such decision and intends to submit to Nasdaq a plan to regain compliance with such continued listing requirement. As a result of the submission of such appeal, the delisting of the Company's common stock from the Nasdaq Global Market will be stayed until such time as a determination has been made on the Company's appeal.

The Company's plan of compliance will include, among other things, plans to consummate the reverse stock split of the Company's issued and outstanding common stock as approved at the annual meeting. The Company's board of directors has determined it is in the Company's and its shareholders' best interest to defer the consummation of such reverse stock split until such time as it has formulated a complete plan of compliance to present to the Nasdaq Hearings Panel. The Company has also applied to list its shares on the Nasdaq Capital Market, which application has not yet been approved.
